Property Information

Address:

620 East Main Street, Corsica, South Dakota

Property Description:

This home is inviting and spacious. The large living areas and master bedroom on the main level are matched with four large bedrooms on the second level. This house has been updated with double hung windows throughout. Situated on Main Street, you are steps away from the school and just a few blocks away from the business district. Location, location, location!

Pickleball. That's right! You have your own pickleball court where you can entertain friends and family. Enjoy watching traffic on Main Street in the enclosed sunroom. Plenty of storage is available in the house and more can be used in the detached garage and storage shed. The corner lot allows for ample street parking.

Community Description:

Corsica is known for welcoming friends and strangers to the area. The business community is robust and accommodating. Outdoorsmen enjoy the deer and pheasant hunting in the area and fishing on the Missouri River is just minutes away.
