This is an aerial photograph of a large agricultural field. The field is divided into several sections by red boundary lines. A prominent diagonal feature, possibly a ditch or a road, runs from the bottom left towards the top right. A small, white, windmill-like structure is visible in the upper left quadrant. The overall color of the field is a mix of brown and tan, suggesting dry or harvested crops. The red lines define four main areas, each with a text label indicating its size in acres. The labels are in red text on white rectangular backgrounds.
